AFTER ALL.

BY GIPSY WILDE.

After all is past!
Baby's laughter, childhood's reign,
Youth's natal morn, that knows no pain
While it sees afar the world's great plain—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
Ambition, competition, strife,
The numberless woes of a struggling life
With a world of aspirations rife—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
The anguish of the long, long years,
The keen heart pain, the burning tears,
The hopeless watching, the endless fears—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
The weary, weary outstretched hands,
To catch the golden, glittering bands
Of a love, enduring as fabrics of sand—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
The shattered wrecks of hope and trust,
Our idols and dreams embracing the dust,
Borne down by the scourge of common lust—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
The toil, the care, the slanderous breath,
Wormwood bitter unto death;
Life, a desolate, blackened heath—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
Knowing all that mortals can know,
Grasping all that is given below,
Peerless delights, profounds of all woe—
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
Dazed and suted by the clinquant of Fame,
Gaining the guerdon—a deathless name—
Learning, too late, Earth's treasures are vain,
What is ours at last?

After all is past!
Living alone for the life we now know,
Seeking the pleasures Sin's legions bestow,
When we 'neath the turf are laid low—
What is ours at last?

Living for Him whose infinite love
Bore to the Cross; dying to prove
That a Refuge, a Rest, when all is past,
Shall be ours at last.

After all is past!
Looking to the "Rock that is higher than we"
To a glorious immortality:
A life of endless bliss will be
Ours at last.

In the town of Orange, Schuyler county, during a heavy September rain storm, a water-spout, with a forward rotary motion, swept through a pathway some forty rods wide, occasioning much destruction. Large trees were torn up by the roots and fences and buildings demolished. A school house was lifted from its foundation and portions of it carried to a great distance.

A Preacher's Stratagem.

It is said, at one time, when Lorenzo Dow preached under a large spruce pine in South Carolina, he announced another appointment for preaching in the same place, on that day twelve months. The year passed, and as Lorenzo was entering the neighborhood, the evening preceding his appointment, he overtook a colored boy who was blowing a long tin horn, and could send a out blast with rise, and swell, and cadence, which waked the echoes of the distant hills.

Calling aside the blower, Dow said to him:

"What is your name, sir?"

"My name? Gabreil, sir!" replied the brother in ebony.

"Well, Gabriel have you been to Church Hill?"

"Yes, massa, I'se been dar many a time."

"Do you remember a big spruce pine tree on that hill?"

"O yes, massa, I knows dat pine."

"Did you know that Lorenzo Dow had an appointment to preach under that tree to-morrow?"

"O yes, massa, everybody knows dat."

"Well, Gabriel, I am Lorenzo Dow, and if you'll take your horn and go to-morrow morning and climb into that pine tree, and hide among the branches before the people begin to gather, and wait there till I call your name, and then blow such a blast with your horn as I heard you blow a minago, I'll give you a dollar.

"Will you do it, Gabriel?"

"Yes, massa, I takes that dollar."

Gabriel, like Zaccheus, was hid away in the tree top in fine time. An immense concourse, of all sizes and colors, assembled at the appointed hour, and Dow preached on the judgment of the last day. By the power of description he wrought the multitude up to the opening scenes of the resurrection, of the grand assize, at the call of the trumpet peals which were to awake the nations. "Then," said he, "suppose my friends that we should hear this moment the sound of Gabriel's trumpet." Sure enough, at that moment the trumpet of Gabriel sounded. The women shrieked, and many fainted; the men sprang up and looked aghast; some ran; others fell and called for mercy; and all felt for a time that the judgment was set and the books were opened. Dow stood and watched the driving storm till the fright abated; and some one discovered the colored angel who had caused the alarm quietly perched on a limb of the old spruce, and wanted to get him down and whip him, and then resumed his theme, saying, I forbid all persons touching that boy up there. If a colored boy with a tin horn can frighten you almost out of your wits, what will you do when ye shall hear the trumpet of the Archangel? How will ye be able to stand in the great day of the wrath of God?" He made a very affective application.

PASSIONS SUICIDAL.—Excessive labor, exposure to wet and cold, deprivation of sufficient quantities of necessary and wholesome food, habitual bad lodging, sloth and intemperance, are all daily enemies to human life; but they are none of them so bad as violent and ungoverned passions. Men and women have survived all these, and at last reached an extreme old age; but it may safely doubted whether a single instance can be found of a man of a violent and irascible temper, habitually subject to storms of ungovernable passion who has arrived at a very advanced period of life. It is therefore a matter of the highest importance to every one desirous to preserve a sound mind in a sound body, so that the brittle vessel of life may glide smoothly and securely instead of being tossed about amidst rocks and shoals which endanger its existence, to have a special care, amidst all the vicissitudes and trials of life, to maintain a quiet possesion of his own spirit.—Bailey.

THE DOXOLOGY.—Bishop Kent, born 1636, and who died 1710, was the well known author of the familiar doxology, "Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow." The poet Montgomory has very properly remarked of this perfect composition, that it has probably been more used than any other, except the Lord's Prayer; that is a masterpiece at once of amplification and compression. On amplification, on the burden "Praise God," repeated in each line; compression, exhibiting God as the object of praise in every view in which we can imagine praise due to Him, for all His blessings—yea, for all blessings, none coming from any other source; praise by every creature especially invoked here below and in Heaven above; praise to Him in each of the characters wherein He has revealed Himself in His Word, "Father, Son and Holy Ghost." Yet this comprehensive stanza is sufficiently simple that by it the ignorant and wise, the young and the mature, may "perfect praise."

AN IMMENSE BOA.—A few weeks ago the barque Zingerella, Captain Shaw, arrived at Boston from Bissau, on the west coast of Africa. She brought five boaconstricter and four large dog-faced monkeys. The largest of the serpents is twenty-eight feet long, is of immense girth, and weighs nine hundred and odd pounds. On its arrival it had not eaten for six weeks. Its last meal had consisted of twelve small cats and a good-sized dog, which it disposed of in the course of a night. On Saturday night, showing signs of hunger, a live cat was given to it, which it speedily crushed and swallowed. A second live cat still remains in the cage. The wretched animal evinces extreme terror at the presence of its deadly foe.

THE GOLD EXCITEMENT.—A New York correspondent of the Beaver Radical, under date of October 4, thus describes the recent gold excitement in that city:

Wall street was more excited yesterday than it has been any day since the war, and gold fluctuated more in one day than it ever has done in the city. The whole trouble was caused by a few parties—a clique—buying for the purpose of speculation, and to have revenge on certain other persons. We spoke in a former letter of the tally board, an arrangement by which all bankers in the city are made acquainted with the price of gold. Every one of them is connected with the one in the gold room. It consists of three columns of figures and one of fractions, and all concealed from view except such as represent the price of gold. These are changed by a telegraph operator, who sits in the gold room listening for sales. Every change in price is sent to all banking houses immediately, so that the words are hardly out of a person's mouth until they are distributed broadcast over the city; their influence even reaching London and Paris before the bargain is altogether concluded. Yesterday the changes were so rapid that the operator could not telegraph them all. Banking houses were so "muddled" that they refused to sell gold across the counter at any price. A man ran down from the gold room to his office, a hundred yds, and exclaimed, "gold is 150." Another clerk stepped out of the back room and said, "It's gone back to 130." The first man had stepped in to hang up his hat, and it had run up to 160. In one minute more it was at 140. This rapid changing of itself would paralyze business. But to make matters still worse there are certain sharpers afloat on these occasions to shove worthless paper on the market. Brokers have to move more cautiously, and payments get behind sales. The excitement gets up to fever heat. The very center of the streets got jammed with people so that wagons cannot pass. Even the bootblacks, although it suspends their business, catch the excitement, and "talk stocks." At a time like this the gold room resembles a lunatic asylum. Indeed we had the Revs. Hollingshead there on a quiet day, and they thought some of the men were crazy.

Thanksgiving Day.

Washington, Oct. 8.—By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION.

The year which is drawing to a close has been free from pestilence; health has prevailed throughout the land; abundant crops reward the labors of the husbandman; commerce and manufactures have successfully prosecuted their peaceful paths; the mines and forests have yielded liberally; the nation has increased in wealth and in strength; peace has prevailed and its blessings have advanced every interest of the people in every part of the Union; harmony and fraternal interest restored are obliterating the marks of past conflict and estrangement, burdens have been lightened, means have been increased, civil and religious liberty are secured to every inhabitant of this land, whose soil is trod by none but freemen. It becomes a people thus favored to make acknowledgment to the Supreme Author from whom such blessings flow, of their gratitude and their dependence, to render praise and thanksgiving for the same, and devoutly to implore a continuance of God's mercies.

Therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend that Thursday, the 18th of November next, be observed as a day of thanksgiving and of praise and prayer to Almighty God, the Creator and Ruler of the universe. And I do further recommend to all the people of the United States to assemble on that day in their accustomed places of public worship, and to unite in the homage and praise due to the bountiful Father of all mercies, and in fervent prayer for the continuance of the manifold blessings He has vouchsafed to us as a people.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed, this 5th day of October, A. D. 1869, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-fourth.

By the President: U. S. GRANT.
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

☞ The entire cost of the Suez Canal, which, next to our Pacific Railroad, is the greatest work of modern days, has been about $81,000,000. But to include improvements, which will be applied as experience may suggest, we may safely set the total sum at $85,000,000. Whether it will ever prove a great financial success, is a problem which English papers are now earnestly discussing; but one thing is pretty sure, it will not prove "an abortive scheme, ruinous to its contractors." The Company has already advantageously sold its various buildings on the line of the canal and still has valuable lands on its banks, and especially at its two harbors. It is estimated by some authorities that the annual business of the canal will amount to 10,000,000, and that its gross receipts will be 100,000,000 francs. The low toll of traffic—but ten francs per ton—across Egypt will attract an enormous trade, and already English and French merchants are building vessels expressly for canal navigation. Its present rate of movement is about 100,000 tons per annum, and when it is fully opened, it is easy to understand that this rate may be increased a hundred fold. Nearly or quite all the steam marine in the Asiatic trade will probably at once adopt this route.

Captain Webber, of Gibraltar, was crossing last May the Cordilleras at the pass of Tinagosta, when at an elevation of 14,500 feet he was made delirious by the rarefied air, and died before he had descended 1000 feet, tho' his companion afforded him every possible relief in spite of his own sufferings. The unfortunate traveler was buried on the mountain side.

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, Oct. 20, 1869.

WM. LEWIS, HUGH LINDSAY, } EDITORS.

"The "Globe" has the largest number of readers of any other paper published in the county. Advertisers should remember this.

☞ We ask our Republican brethren of the press throughout the State if they ever knew of a Republican paper rejoicing over the defeat of its party.

☞ The whole Republican county ticket received one vote in Birmingham. We want to know who that voter is. Give us your name or your photograph.

☞ The guerilla Chief was in town on Friday last. We never saw him in such a good humor before. He and Uncle George almost hugged each other. Perhaps there was a distribution of honors at Headquarters.

WEST.—Our friend Henry Davis promised Williamson only two or three votes in his township. The official returns give Williamson 105 votes, a larger vote than any other man on either ticket received. Henry's influence worked just as we expected it would.

☞ We are informed that efforts will now be made by the Guerilla faction to crush the Globe and the Journal & American. Go in, Guerillas—"Dad" has seen that tried on before—he is "at home" in such a fight and does not ask for quarters.

☞ The guerilla clan profess strong love for the soldiers. They defeated a soldier, at the late election, by the circulation of base falsehoods. He was wounded and lost two brothers in the service of his country. Some of the guerillas live in very rickety glass houses, and it looks very bad for them to throw stones.

☞ Guerilla Cremer, who couldn't get a nomination over a wounded soldier, says, Nash and McDivitt are still sleeping in bed with us. Bully for that—we will never kick them out as long as they refuse to associate politically with the guerilla clan. Cremer can't be accommodated even at the foot of our bed, or under it either.

"Strictly Private--Burn This."

"I will therefore unbosom myself to you as is only done to the most true and tried friends, feeling certain that not a word or thought will or can be exposed to the public by you.—Extract from a Guerilla Letter.

Does the above read as if the guerillas were working in secret or in open day that the party might know how nominations are made?

☞ The first days of the rejoicings of the guerillas were the sweetest. The bitter is beginning to come. Republicans in the county who voted with the guerillas because they had done so in former years don't see that their party has gained anything by defeating its candidates and electing Democrats. They smell a mighty big mice. They see that a secret ring of corrupt politicians intend to ruin the party if they can't control it. They can't be caught a second time with Orlady's "Programme," no matter who may be nominated by a Republican Convention.

HOW THE "PROGRAMME" WAS WORKED UP.—We have had placed in our possession since the election about a dozen letters running back to 1864—they are interesting, very—and they give us a better idea of how the "ring "worked up" their "programme" every year, than we ever had. They should have been published before the election to open the eyes of the Republicans deceived by the guerillas, but it is never too late to do good—we will make good use of them. The leading men named in the letters are some of the chaps most prominent as guerillas this fall. Scott and Dorris have added themselves to the number. The disorganizers will have to put on considerable "cheek" hereafter when they denounce secret political organizations. All that was written "strictly confidential—burn," fortunately for the Republican party of the county, was not burned.

☞ The political fight this fall has worked out of their hiding place all the prominent guerillas who have been playing the guerilla for years. Heretofore they managed to cover their tracks pretty well, but this fall they felt bold with a United States Senator and nearly every Government office in the county to back them and they made an open fight to defeat the Republican party. Another such a guerilla victory and the Republican party will be played out in the county—the very thing the guerilla Chief is trying to bring about as a punishment to the party for refusing to nominate and elect him to office. He has been trying to run the party up to his secret "programme" for years. Sometimes he partly succeeded, as at the last Convention; but when he failed in a Convention he would try to succeed at the election by having his clan to cut the ticket. The whole "ring" is now in an open field and the true men of the party will know how far to trust them.

Ex-Governor Ritner died at Carlisle on Saturday, in his 90th year.

How do You Like It?

The last week's guerilla organ, the Republican (?) established by the guerillas to disorganize and defeat the Republican party of the county, displayed its black flag in the shape of a black rooster, over the result of the election in the county. We wish every Republican in the county could see the paper, and notice for themselves the rejoicings of the guerillas over the election of McAteer, Roher, McNeil, Jackson and Smith, the Democratic candidates, and the defeat of the Republican nominees, Swoope, McCoy, Williamson, Fouse, Lamberson and Richardson.—The Democrats and guerillas are one in their rejoicings. United they succeeded in doing what it was impossible for the Democrats to do with their own strength. It is a beautiful picture for the Republicans who were deceived by the lies circulated by the guerillas, to look upon. The guerillas claiming to be good Republicans, congratulating Bruce Petrikin, Geo. Jackson, and the Democrats generally upon the victory they, united, had gained over the friends of the Republican party and its nominees! We think we hear Republicans in every part of the county who were influenced by the guerillas thinking very loud and promising themselves that they would never again be caught helping to strike down good men of their own party that the Democracy might have an opportunity to rejoice over them. The rejoicings of the Democracy and the guerillas over the defeat of the Republican ticket should be enough to open the eyes of all misled Republicans to the infamous conduct of the guerilla "ring" under the control of Dr. H. Orlady, the master spirit of all the difficulties in the Republican party since he left the Democratic and came over to the Republican party, and now that he has help from Scott, Dorris & Co. he will, if permitted to have any further influence in the party, drag it down to destruction, and then return to the Democracy with his clan to receive his reward. Republicans of the county, if you want your party destroyed listen to and obey the instructions of the guerilla organ and its clan.

The Official Result in the County.

We publish elsewhere in this Globe the official returns of the late election in this county, by which it will be seen that but three of the Republican nominees, Lytle, Smucker and Green, are elected. The balance of the Republican ticket was defeated through the influence of Orlady's ring of Guerillas, Scott, Dorris, Wharton, the Fishers, the Blairs, and others. The three candidates elected had been endorsed by "My Committee" as all right, and were supported by the "ring," and elected. Now that the smoke of the contest has passed away, the voters who were deceived by the leading guerillas can see the work they helped to do. They defeated better Republicans than the prominent guerillas ever were or ever will be, and elected to office some of the most bitter Democrats in the county. The same conduct in other counties would have also defeated Gov. Geary—his majority in this county being cut down through the operations of the guerillas to only 457. Harmonious action on the part of Republicans would have given Geary at least 900 majority in the county—the loss must be placed to the credit of the guerillas, controlled by their chief, Dr. H. Orlady.—Scott, Dorris & Co., have at last been used by the most unscrupulous and most unreliable politicians in the county. The Doctor is jubilant—he is where he always was, and has brought down "the other breed of cats" to a level with himself.

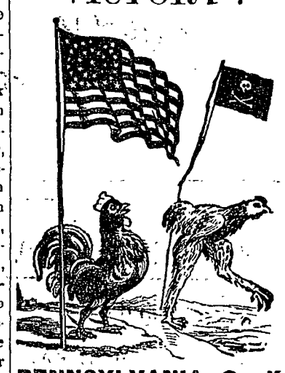
WILLIAMSON AND CLOYD.—Williamson was the Republican nominee.—Cloyd was an independent, accepted by the Democrat, and guerillas as their candidate. His name was printed on the regular Democratic tickets priated by the Monitor, and on the tickets printed by the guerilla organ along with three Republican nominees and four Democrats, and with all this political trickery he beats Williamson only 374 votes. Packer had 2368 votes—Cloyd had 2526 votes—with the guerilla vote only one hundred and fifty-eight above the Democratic vote. If the election could take place again the guerillas would be sent back to their holes howling, but as it cannot, we must face as best we can, the rejoicings of the Democrats and guerillas over their victory, and we have "cheek" enough to face all and rejoice that we are not in their shoes.

☞ If we tramp upon anybody's toes in our fight with guerillaism, it will be an assault in self-defence.—Party organization is of no use to a party unless it is lived up to by party men. Without party organization and an adherence to the will of the majority and the action of its Convention, no party can live. After our party nominates a ticket we shall know no man, high or low, opposed to it. The men who slaughtered the Republican party in the county this fall must not have an opportunity to do the same thing next fall. They left the party organization to help the Democracy, and there let them stay, and the unsuspecting Republicans throughout the county will not be deceived by them a second time.

VICTORY!



PENNSYLVANIA O. K.

OHIO O. K.

IOWA O. K.

Governors, Supreme Judge and Legislatures, All Republican!

Three States held elections on the 12th inst.—Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa—each for Governor, State officers and Legislature.

PENNSYLVANIA over true to the Constitution and the Union, has again asserted her fealty to good government and her love of law and order, by emphatically pronouncing in favor of Republicans and the principles of the Republican party. Notwithstanding the disaffection in our own ranks and the unpopularity of one or more of our candidates, besides the fifteenth amendment, the Herdic act, the indemnity bill, the tank bill, high taxation, and a thousand and one other charges brought against us by our opponents, and alleged as infamous, the people have spoken in no unmistakable terms in favor of the party that saved the country.

A few counties remain yet to be heard from, officially, but enough is known to show that Pennsylvania still "keeps step to the music of the Union," and has achieved another glorious Republican triumph. Geary's majority will be over 4000 and may possible reach 5000. William's majority will not be less than 8000, and 10,000 is claimed. Taking all things into consideration, this is glory enough for one day. The Registry Law did its work effectively, as the result in Philadelphia and Luzerne county show—the former giving Geary a majority of 4400, while last year it gave Boyle for Auditor General 275 majority, and the latter gave Packer a majority of only 1,006, while last year it gave Boyle a majority of 3428. The unpopularity of the "Pride of the Valley" at home, is the cause assigned for the great falling off in the usual majority in that strong hold of Democracy. So it is in other immensely Democratic districts, where the coffee pot and fraudulent naturalization papers were brought into extensive use. No wonder that our Democratic friends declared against the "infamous Registry Law," for it has taken away the only means by which they hoped to be successful and which is contained in that one little word—FRAUD.

We elect a Republican Legislature by a majority of 5 in the Senate and twenty-six in the House, giving us a majority of thirty-one on joint ballot.

OHIO has re-elected her gallant Hayes to the Governorship by from 8000 to 10,000 majority and returned her Legislature by a Republican majority of three in the House and one in the Senate.

IOWA has re-elected Gov. Morrill by the magnificent majority of thirty thousand,—a much larger majority than was anticipated. The Legislature will stand: Senate—Republicans forty-two, Democrats, 8; the House—Republicans, 85; Democrats, 16.

NEW SECRETARY OF WAR.—Maj. Gen. Wm. M. Belknap, of Keokuk, Iowa, has been appointed by the President, Secretary of War to succeed General Rawlins. He will enter upon the duties of his office in a few days. Gen. Belknap is thirty-eight years of age, entered the Army at the outbreak of the war as a Major, and served with distinction to the close,—having been advanced to the brevet of a Major-General of volunteers and commanded a Division in the fifteenth Army Corps under General Sherman, on his march from "Atlanta to the Sea." He now holds the appointment of Collector of Internal Revenue for the Keokuk, Iowa, district. His appointment was a complete surprise, but appears to give general satisfaction.

☞ We ask, who printed the Republican tickets with S. E. Fleming on for District Attorney?—Guerilla Organ.

Not knowing can't say. There is no type in the Globe office like the type used in printing the tickets in question. But we ask, who printed the guerilla tickets with McNeal, Jackson and Smith, Democrats, and Cloyd, guerilla, on? Was it a Republican ticket? Were you supporting the Republican party by printing, circulating and voting such a ticket? The Republican party have you and your clan now stripped naked before them and the way you will get lashed will make you all feel meaner than a sheep thief.

The property holders at Washington are becoming alarmed at the prospect of the removal of the Capital, and are going to memorialize Congress to save them ere they perish.

A Trick of the Guerillas.

Some days before the election, Painter and Williamson made arrangements to go to the upper end townships to circulate the regular Republican tickets. Their buggy stood near Petriken's office for nearly an hour before they got ready to start. Mr. Painter came to the Globe and Journal offices and supplied himself with tickets, rolling them in one bundle. The gentlemen then went to their buggy and started. When they arrived at A. Hutchison's, in Warriorsmark, Mr. Williamson discovered that the tickets they were giving Hutchison had Fleming's name on where Lytle's should be. They had given the same tickets to Mr. Hamilton in Franklin township, and they immediately sent him word to destroy them. The bundle of tickets Mr. Painter had put in the buggy was then found in the box. How the bundle of bogus tickets got there neither of the gentlemen could tell, but very strong circumstantial evidence leads many to believe that they were placed there by a disorganizer for the purpose of charging the gentlemen with having in their possession bogus tickets, thereby injuring the standing of the gentlemen with their party. It was a pretty smart trick by some one or more of the enemy, but fortunately the gentlemen left the tickets where they knew they would be examined. If Painter and Williamson had intended to circulate bogus tickets, Hamilton and Hutchison would have been the very last men they would have tried to impose upon. The assertion by the guerillas that Painter and Williamson tried to cut the party ticket is not believed by even the guerillas themselves. The trick to "pick up" Painter and Williamson is not the meanest one the guerillas and their friends were guilty of during the campaign.

It is said that the mormon question is to come directly before Congress at the next session. Then, we infer, will be decided whether we can have mormons in Pennsylvania as well as Utah, for if it is permissible there why not here?

Mr Horace Greeley attended a wedding in New York recently, and according to a correspondent, he, for the first time in a long and gloveless career, appeared in white kids, the fingers of which were almost as much too long for him as his pantaloons were too short. He spent a great portion of the evening in examining this article of his apparel, and having arrived at the conviction that it was all there, beamed in a moony manner.—While doing so he lost his pocket handkerchief, which had a pink border around, and was immediately grabbed for by half a dozen young ladies. By them it was immediately torn in many pieces, each of which was taken home to be washed, which it badly needed.

☞ It is not particularly pleasant to sit as a juror in an Irish court, engaged in settling disputes between landlord and tenant. A jury at Galway, on the 30th of September, couldn't agree, and one of the jurors who stood out against the popular sentiment was assailed (we quote the Irish Times) by a mob on his way home from court. He took refuge in the barracks, and one of the stones thrown at him struck the sentry. The judges, on leaving the court in their carriage for their lodgings, were also assailed, notwithstanding the escort that accompanied them. There was loud hooting, stones were thrown, and one of the carriage windows was broken. The police charged with fixed bayonets, and dispersed the mob.

The material growth of the South during the last four years is strikingly shown by the editorials in some of the Southern papers. The official figures at the Department estimate that the cotton crop of the Southern States this year will be worth $240,000,000; while the total value of the exports of the South is set down at $328,500,000. At this rate the value of Southern products is about $21 32 per head for the entire Southern population. These figures go to show that the South is even now the richest section of the country.

Official Vote of 1868-9.

A Thrilling Adventure.

On Saturday evening a thrilling adventure befell the messenger in charge of the car of the American Express Company, on the night express train from Erie to this city. Shortly after leaving the former place he discovered to his consternation that the contents of the car were on fire. The car was packed full of the usual assortment of express freight, consisting principally of dry goods and other merchandise, and the bell rope connecting with the engine had been passed over the top of the car. Both ends of the car were crammed with packages, only a small vacant space being left in the centre at the doors, occupied by the messenger.

The perilous nature of his condition cannot he fully realized. The train was whirling along through the darkness at the rate of 30 miles an hour, and fire was rapidly spreading through the dry combustibles, fast filling the car with heat and smoke. He had no possible means of signalling the engineer, and no means of egress to the other cars or of communication with their occupants. He might shout himself hoarse, and his voice would be drowned by the roar of the train. It seemed impossible for him to give any alarm until the fire should have made such progress as to be discovered by others, but in the meantime he himself must be inevitably suffocated or compelled to take the alternative of leaping from the train.

To open the doors of the car would be but to admit the air and give a new impetus to the flames. But the heat and smoke were already stifling and something must be done immediately or he must perish.

Opening one of the doors he wheeled one of the iron safes to the edge of the car and let it fall. It was struck by the steps of the baggage car, producing such a concussion as to alarm its occupants. Rightly conjecturing that something was wrong, the engineer was signalled and the train soon came to a stop. The cause of the alarm was soon discovered, the messenger being found leaning as far as possible out of the car to escape the smoke. Every appliance at command was speedily brought into requisition, and the fire was fortunately extinguished. The safe was picked up and the train resumed its journey, arriving at its journey without further accident. The amount of loss is not known, but it is thought it will not be very large. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from engine.—Cleveland Herald, 4th.

☞ The difference between Turkey and Egypt, is far from being settled. The Sultan declines receive the Khedive at Constantinople, unless he submits to the humiliating terms of the Divan. This as yet he has not consented to do. The Porte complains that the Victoro is supported by England, and Ali Pasha threatens that if Lord Clarendon persists in his coldness toward the Sultan, the latter will throw himself into the arms of the Czar.

THE "JOHNS."—The Fraternity of Johns hold their annual reunion at the Morrison House, on Friday evening last. There were sixteen present, and it is not necessary for us to say, they enjoyed themselves hugely, in their peculiar way. The supper partaken of was tip-top, and reflected great credit upon the catering qualities of "mine host" W. W. Hildebrand, and assistants. We are sorry our space and time will not afford us an opportunity to give a more extended notice of this reunion, the supper, &c.; but the members, old and new, agree in saying they never saw anything like it, and we leave them to supply what we are obliged to omit.

Extract from a Private Letter from Hawaii Sandwich Islands.

* * * * * Although the eruption is not so violent now, the volcano is a fearful sight to behold. The rivers of lava still flow, and the smoke from the crater ascends in awful majesty. During this volcanic upheaval it has been very sickly here. A peculiar sort of low malarious fever, which has grown out of the foul, condensed vapors of the volcano, has prevailed to an alarming extent, and at one time it was feared it would depopulate the island. But fortunately, a sea-captain [calling here for supplies] distributed Plantation Bitters to the suffering, and quick and thorough cures were the result. The news spread like wild-fire. Messrs. Ching-Takin & Co., Commission Merchants, had these Bitters for sale. In a short time their office was besieged and their supply exhausted.—A steamer was dispatched to San Francisco by order of the Hospital Department, and a new and enormous supply obtained as soon as possible. From that moment the scourge was stayed. Not another fatal case occurred, and the epidemic has now entirely disappeared. * * * Is this wonderful remedy known in your city? I hope so, for it is a sure cure for all fevers and miasmatic sickness. You may tell your friends so for me. * * * * * H. M. C.

An afflicted mother says: "A few days ago my little boy, five years old, was confined to the house in consequence of bad weather. As is usual in such cases, he was extremely troublesome and fidgetty, and in consequence, received a number of scoldings in the course of the morning. At last he looked up at me, with a face full of indignation, and exclaimed, "Mother, if all the bears in the world were one bear, and that bear had a sore head, it would't be any crosser than you are."

MARRIED,

At the M. E. parsonage, Tyrone, Pa., Oct. 2d, by Rev. Thos. Burnhart, Mr. DAVID RUMBERGER of Half Moon, and Miss HENRIETTA EMEIGH of Warriorsmark, Huntingdon county.

In Lewistown, on Feb. 25th, 1869, by the Rev. O. O. McClean, JOSEPH G. LEFFARD to Miss EMMA L. BEIGLE, all of Spruce Creek, Huntingdon county. [County papers, please copy.]

DIED,

On Friday, September 3, Mr. MORDECAI ISENBERG, of Porter township, in the 63d year of his age.

The deceased was called away suddenly, being stricken down with paralysis on Thursday evening in the prayer meeting. He died the next morning; but a well-grounded faith in his Saviour had disarmed Death of all his terrors. No earthly conqueror ever obtained so glorious a victory as the humble Christian obtains under the banner of the great Captain of his salvation. Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his. F

Items for the Farmer.

The corn crop in Kentucky is bad.

It is found that lima beans dry better in the pod than when shelled.

See that your sheep, hogs, hens and cattle have warm and cosy quarters for the approaching winter.

A farmer in East Troy, N. Y., from three and one-half ounces of the Early Rose potato raised sixty-four pounds.

To cure a balky horse, fill his mouth with dry, loose dirt, take hold of his bit, and he will go, if there is any go in him.

A better variety of grapes is needed. The number of varieties is far too great already, but nine-tenths of those now in cultivation ought to be discarded, and better ones take their place.

Any farmer in the county who has suggestions to make, upon any product he has raised, will benefit the farming community, by having them published in this column of our paper.

When barley is dry and in good condition, and is thrashed with a machine, the beards are all knocked off and the barley is prepared for market by simply running it through an ordinary fanning mill.

Paul Miller, of Columbus, Wis., has cured many cases of bloat in cattle, by placing a stick in the cow's mouth, and keeping it in place by strings fastened to the horns. This releases the imprisoned foul air from the distended stomach, and prevents more swelling.

To keep potatoes for seed, first dry them thoroughly for several days, then place them in a dry, cool part of the cellar, on a floor of boards, and not more than two feet deep. Never keep them in barrels. Examine them occasionally during the winter, and if they show a tendency to grow, rub the eyes off and spread them out thinner.

KILLING SORREL AND CANADA THISTLES.—There appears to be a notion prevalent among the cultivators of the soil that there must be some easy and cheap method of destroying weeds.—To ascertain how it is to be done is the rub and just where the laugh comes in with the itinerant peddlers who sell farmers the secret of killing Canada thistles by cutting them on certain days from June to September, or at a particular time of the moon. Sorrel and other noxious weeds are disposed of, or supposed to be, in the same way; but, with all the nostrums and secrets against them, they continue to grow and spread, except where cultivators of the soil attack them in a commonsense way—that is, cut them down with hoe, plough, or any other instrument that will effectually prevent any leaf or stem appearing above the surface. Canada thistles are the most persistent of all weeds, but they cannot survive this treatment more than two seasons.—Exchange.

Housekeepers' Recipes.

HOW TO USE SOUR BREAD.—The American Agriculturist says: It has been well said that "accidents will happen in the best regulated families," and sometimes the bread is sour. Sour white bread is very poor eating, and besides it is not healthful, though exactly why, we will leave the doctors to tell. We know, from well-recognized symptoms, it is not healthful diet, and never eat it, though we eat with relish the German schwartz Brod, which, in perfection, should be distinctly sour, but not much so.

If the bread cannot be used immediately, it should be sliced as soon as it is stale enough, dried thoroughly in an oven which is cooling off or not hot enough to scorch it at all. It may require to be put in the oven two or three times before it is dry enough to keep

Baked Bread Pudding—To a pint of bread crumbs add a pint of milk, and let them soak thoroughly; add a second pint of milk, four well beaten eggs, and salt, sugar, and spice to taste, together with soda enough to correct the acidity of the bread (half a teaspoonful is usually enough); bake half an hour. The number of eggs is arbitrary.

Boiled Bread Pudding—Soak in the same way bread crumbs in milk until perfectly soft, using only enough milk to soften them; add three beaten eggs with salt and a little soda; it should be quite stiff; raisins are an agreeable addition; boil in a cloth three-quarters of an hour, and serve with hot wine sauce.

Griddle Cakes—Soak the bread as before directed, having an excess of milk; thicken with flour; sour milk may be employed with advantage, but is not necessary; add soda and salt dissolved in milk, being careful not to get in too much soda.

We take the following from Mrs. Hunnitee's diary in the Hearth and Home:

Corn Bread—Take two quarts of corn meal, with about a pint of thin bread-sponge, and water enough to wet it; mix in one-half pint of wheat flour and a tablespoonful of salt; let it rise; knead well the second time, and bake an hour and a half.

Sweet Potato Pudding—One pound of sweet potatoes boiled and mashed fine, six eggs well beaten, three-quarters of a pound of sugar, the same of butter, a grated lemon rind, half a nutmeg, a wine glass of brandy or milk. Line the dish with paste. When it is baked, sprinkle the top with pulverized sugar.

Flannel Cake—Put two ounces of butter into a pint of hot milk, let it melt; add then a pint of cold milk, 4 beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of yeast, and sufficient flour to make a stiff batter. Set in a warm place three hours to rise, or make it up over-night. Fry on the griddle.

Lemon Pie—Dissolve one tablespoonful of cornstarch in a little water and pour on it a cup of boiling water. When it boils up pour it on one cup of sugar and a tablespoonful of butter.—When cool, add one egg and the yolk of another, well beaten, and the peel and juice of a lemon. Put in a pie-plate lined with paste, and bake.—When done, spread over the top the white of an egg beaten up with sugar, and let it stand in the oven a few minutes.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured; and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the agne districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

PRICE, $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it not only cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

The qualities which recommend them are:
1. Beauty and excellence of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed.
2. Strength, firmness and durability of seam, that will not rip nor ravel.
3. Economy of Thread.
4. Attachments and wide range of application to purposes and materials.
5. Compactness and elegance of model and finish.
6. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction.
7. Speed, ease of operation and management, and quietness of movement.

BAUGH'S
RAW BONE
SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

STANDARD WARRANTED.

We offer to Farmers, the present fall season, BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME as being highly improved.

Baugh's Raw Bone Super Phosphate is, as its name indicates, prepared by dissolving Raw Bones in Oil of Vitriol—that is, bones that have not been deprived of their organic matter—the grease and glue—by burning or baking. It, therefore, presents to the use of the farmer all the valuable properties of Raw Bones in a highly concentrated form—rendering it at once quick in action and very permanent.

☞ Farmers are recommended to purchase of the dealer located in their neighborhood. In sections where no dealer is yet established, the PHOSPHATE may be procured directly from the undersigned.
